The Chartered Institute of Logistics & Transport

South Africa

Who We Are

The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport (CILT) is the international professional body for Logistics and Transport professionals. With a network of National Councils and Sections in over 30 countries, CILT services the interests of over 30 000 members. CILT is a professional body committed to the advancement of Logistics and Transport. CILT established a Section in South Africa, known as CILTSA, in December 2002.

Worldwide Mission

To be recognised as the leading worldwide source and assurance of excellence for Logistics and Transport professionals.

Aims and Objectives

- To establish and maintain the professional standing of its members so that they are recognised for their superior ability and expertise to create world-class Logistics and Transport value within their organisations and South Africa.
- To support the transformation of the profession by transferring skills to young professionals from former disadvantaged communities through appropriate mentoring and career development initiatives to be inclusive rather than exclusive.
- To promote the study of the science and the art of Logistics and Transport.
- To co-operate with the educational sector and with other professional institutes to raise training and educational standards, in keeping with our Code of Professional Conduct.
- To foster investigation and research into the development and improvement of Logistics and Transport.
- To hold regular meetings, conferences and events on Logistics and Transport.
- To optimise the use of Information Technology in Logistics and Transport.
- To provide professional inputs to the industry, government and the community.
- To promote safety and security in all modes of transport.

What We Are Not

- A political body.
- Committed to a singular ideological or modal view of transport.
